

Pennsylvania DeMolay Convention 2010

Dress Code

All Convention activities will require casual dress, with the following exceptions:

DeMolays and Advisors need dress shirt and tie for Saturday Induction, Saturday Luncheon, and Convention Business Session; Executive Officer's Leadership Team and Elected State Officers in coat and tie; guests should dress appropriately.

The Sunday Worship Service/Installation of State Officers is casual but neat. Nice shorts and collared shirt is preferred. Retiring Elected State Officers and Newly Elected State Officers should be in business suit for Sunday.

If you have questions on the dress code, please check with the Registration Center.

Remember, Advisors have the responsibility of censoring the wearing of any apparel that is obscene, distasteful or indecent.

When you can, proudly wear a DeMolay Shirt to the various activities!
